

Crossing Cultures

THE ART OF MANGA IN HAWAI'I

Presented by the Japanese Cultural Center of Hawai'i

JAPANESE CULTURAL CENTER OF HAWAI'I

2454 South Beretania Street, Honolulu, HI 96826

(808) 945-7633 | info@jcch.com | www.jcch.com

---

NON-PROFIT ORG.

U.S. POSTAGE

PAID

HONOLULU, HI

PERMIT NO. 00891

---

Crossing Cultures: The Art of Manga in Hawai'i

---

May 3 - June 7, 2014 | JCCH Community Gallery

Featuring Hawai'i artists and writers who use manga—a distinctive form of Japanese comic art.

Opening Reception for JCCH Members and Invited Guests

Friday, May 2, 5:30pm, Walkthrough with curator Brady Evans at 6pm.

History Through Manga

Saturday, May 17, 2 - 3pm, Author Patsy Iwasaki, and illustrator

Avery Berido discuss Hamakua Hero: A True Plantation Story.

Real Life Heroes: Chibi Style

Saturday, May 24, 2 - 3pm, Author Stacey Hayashi presents her book Journey of Heroes.

Comic Jam & Artists Showcase

Saturday, May 31, 1 - 3pm, Talk story and draw story with

Comic Jam Hawaii and artists featured in the exhibit.

This exhibition is supported in part by the Society of Asian Art of Hawai'i, Japanese Cultural Center of Hawai'i, Roger & Masako Bellinger, Mark & Carolyn Blackburn, Raymond & Susan Burghardt, Rhoda E. A. Hackler, Will & Celeste Hughes, Dr. Daniel H. & Jane Katayama, Dr. James & Zhou Ning Langworthy, Ernest & Letah Lee, Anonymous donor, the Hawai'i Council for the Humanities, and the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa Museum Studies Graduate Certificate Program. Visit hawaiiimanga.com

Gallery Hours: Tues - Fri, 10am - 4pm | Sat, 9am - 4pm